THE

DANIEL B. BRUBAKER

FAMILY

by J.E. Brubaker

HISTORY

Abraham Brubacher was born in Switzerland on St. Michael's Day in 1731 and died in 1811.

He was the son of Abraham and Maria Herr Brubacher — a family of five sons and six daughters.

He came to America on the ship St. Andrew on September 9, 1749, in company with his cousin John who came back to the old country to fetch himself a wife.

On June 6, 1757, Abraham Brubacher married Magdalena Eschleman. In the same year he bought from Martin Weightman a tract of 172 acres of land in Calico (now Clay) Township. He paid 700 lbs. for the tract.

The original patent was granted by John Penn, Thomas Penn and Richard Penn to Martin Weightman in 1733.

Abraham wanted to build a Grist Mill on this tract but encountered difficulties on account of water rights which so offended him that he sold this tract of land to Martin Nissley in 1787.

On February 29, 1788, he bought a tract of land in the same township from John Carpenter for which he paid 3400 lbs. It was recorded on February 5, 1790 in Philadelphia, Pa. This was an Indian Reservation. On this tract the last of the tribe were allowed to remain until all were dead. They made their burial place close to the Indian Creek where some of their Indian brethren from as far as Mt. Joy carried their dead to be buried. They invited their neighbors along the way to go along to the burial place. Hence the Abraham Brubacher descendants are called the Indiantown Brubachers but the name has since changed to Brubaker. This farm he divided among his sons and daughters where some of his descendants still live.

This man was the first minister of the Indiantown congregation. Through his efforts, mainly, a small school house was built in which he kept school for brief periods during the winter.

His family consisted of 6 sons and 4 daughters. John, the oldest, born June 14, 1758, married Veronica Hess, and moved to Juniata County, where some descendants still live, while some went West and some to Canada. One son, Jacob, went to Snyder County.

Bishop Jacob Brubaker, born 1788 and died August 13, 1854, married Maria Blasser of Union Township, Snyder County, where they moved on her father's farm along the Susquehanna River. Here three generations raised their families, namely, Bishop Jacob, his son Bishop Daniel, and his son David. This farm was in the Brubaker name close to 100 years but since 1914 has passed on to others. The present owner is John Herrold. Jacob and Daniel and their wives are buried in the farm cemetery. The children of Bishop Jacob Brubaker and Maria Blasser are John, born January 18, 1810, married Barbara Enhoff, Rockton, Clearfield County, Pa.; Fannie B., born April 9, 1812, married Jonathan Shellenberger, Monroe Township, Juniata County, Pa.; Abraham, born February 16, 1814, married a Miss Sherk, 2nd wife, Elizabeth Stauffer, Snyder County, Pa.; Jacob, born December 9, 1815, married Sarah Sherk, Snyder County, Pa.; Daniel, recorded later; Joseph, born August, 1820, married Catherine Lauver, second wife, Annie Martin, Snyder County; Lizzie, born August 30, 1821, married David Weaver, near Mexico, Juniata County; and David, born April 9, 1825, married Susan Shetterly, Chapman Township, Snyder County, Pa. On February 6, 1831, Jacob married the second time to Elizabeth Buckwalter but had no children.
